A VERY ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING PALMETTO CLUB MEETING

One of the Most Interesting Held This Winter. Many Prominent

The Palmetto Club met yesterday in the Opera House. There was a full attendance and a large number of guests, making about 125 in all. The program for the afternoon was an Irish one to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. The hall was very tastefully and artistically decorated all in green and in a most conspicuous place sat the figure of the Patron Saint.

The program opened with Irish melodies on the piano by Mrs. Davidson, followed by a reading of the pathetic story of Gomer, by Mrs. Shaffner, which was read in such touching manner as to bring tears to the eyes of many. Prof. Hounthen sang two selections, (a) "The Harp that once through Tara's Halls," (b) "Feating the Green," and for an encore, "The Girl I Left Behind Me." Mrs. Conrad's recitation, Misses O'Brien, with piano accompaniment, deserves more than the few words that can be said here.

Monday (a) "Kathleen McConomy" (a)

(b) "The Last Rose of Summer," which was listened to with the rapt attention Mrs. Moore's songs always claim. That closed the program for the afternoon.

women of America—Miss Susan B. Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw." She then took Miss Anthony by the hand and introduced her to the ladies, when she gave them a short "talk" and mentioned the fact that Florida was the only State in the Union that she had never spoken in public upon.

MUST POST BELATED TRAINS.

All Trains More Than Thirty Minutes Late Must be Promptly Posted on the Board.

The general public are interested in the following recently amended rule of the Florida Railroad Commission:

"It shall be the duty of any railroad operating in the state of Florida to keep a bulletin of sufficient size at every open telegraph station along its line, where such train is scheduled to stop, on which shall be plainly posted the schedule time of arrival of all its passenger trains; and when any passenger train on any such railroad shall be behind the schedule time more than thirty minutes, it shall be the duty of said railroad to promptly bulletin and keep posted at every such open telegraph station along its line in the direction in which said train is going the time such train is behind the schedule time."

Such notice of late trains shall be bulletined not less than half an hour before the schedule time of arrival of said train; but passengers acting upon this information will do so at their own risk.

A copy of this rule, printed in large type, shall be posted at the top of the bulletin board at all open telegraph stations."

A circular was issued and copies sent to all railroad companies doing business in the state, stating that the rule meant exactly what it said and that strict compliance would be required. In case of neglect to comply, the commission will impose a fine and compel observance of the new ruling.

The observance of this new rule by the railroad companies will do away with the oft repeated complaint of people that they can get no information concerning trains, other than that contained in the time tables, the greatest complaint being in regard to belated trains.

Mrs. Swift and son, of Louisville, Ky., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Hendricks.

Tomoka Launch Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Segar, of West-terly, R. I., chartered the Moya this morning for a trip up the Tomoka, the house of the "gator." Aboard the launch as guests of this popular couple were Mr. and Mrs. Pinkus-sohn, Atlanta; Mrs. H. L. Milner, Boston; Mrs. F. E. Horn, Mrs. H. R. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Tillings-hast, Providence, R. I.; Mrs. H. C. Millard and T. C. Millard, Jr., Danbury, Ct.; Mrs. Edward Ober-ton, Miss Ober-ton, Tonawanda, Pa.

The party, composed of a pleasant and congenial people, was out for a good time and they had it. A boun-diful lunch, supplied by the Ridge-wood was partaken of at the cabin. The ladies claim to have seen lots of gators but the gentlemen state that they counted the wooden ones placed on shore by the natives to hoax the initiated.

Last Night's Concert.

Mme. Geneva Johnston-Bishop's concert at the Opera House last night was rendered to a good house and the audience was a highly apprecia-tive one.

Mme. Bishop's full and sympa-thetic mezzo soprano voice was heard to excellent advantage in the various numbers set aside for her and her enunciation was as clear as a bell. Her brilliant rendering of many of her selections caused repeated and prolonged encores, to each and all of which Mme. Bishop responded with pleasure. "His Buttons are marked U. S.," by Carry J. Bond, and "Buy My Oranges," by Scodo-pole, were especially well rendered, and judging by the amount of ap-plause, pleased the audience best.

Miss Mott, who proved a thorough-ly acceptable accompanist, possesses a rare touch and is a musician of unquestionable ability.

The Lake Helen Manufacturing Co., are having much trouble in ob-taining all the copper rock needed.

B. F. Clifton expects to leave for Maryville, Kansas, next week and will probably be absent five or six months.

ORIENTAL PEOPLE.

Grace of the Women and Classic Drapery of the Men.

Passing us occasionally, going to Je-rusalem with butter and eggs and lit-tle jars of lemon that showed their thick, creamy throats as they were held up to us, were small companies of women in single file. As one blue procession went by the leader called to us: "Why should you ride and we walk? Why is your lot better than ours?" Given the opportunity for leisurely argument, we could not by any philosophy have made satisfactory answer. We could only admit the fact as they saw it and re-cognize the universal world plaint of discontent.

They carry themselves, these wom-en, like figures on an antique frieze. As they stride along, holding in sure bal-ance on their heads their jars and bus-kets of homely produce, they tread the stony paths with the grace and large-ness of action that we of the occident have grown to regard as belonging only to the age of Praxiteles.

The men are also admirable in the simplicity of their gestures, the big lines of their attitudes, the swing of their draperies. I saw a youth fling his mantle over his shoulder and fold it about him exactly in the manner of the classic Greek sculptural in his finely unconscious pose. God save the day when these sons of Canaan clothe their limbs in our ungodly garments!—Met-ropolitan Magazine.

OPEN AIR TREATMENT.

Reasons For Its Good Results in Cases of Consumption.

The advantages of the open air treat-ment for consumptives may be thus briefly summarized: The patient ex-posed continuously to fresh air gains in appetite, assimilates his food better, sleeps more soundly and awakens more refreshed. Free exposure to air is the best antipyretic. Sweating at night, formerly so common a symptom, usual-ly ceases. Colds are practically un-known among patients leading an open air life. Secondary infection, on ac-count of the comparative freedom of the air from micro organisms, is much less likely to occur. Tolerance of out-side air is very quickly established, and no one who has tried the open air life will willingly go back to the former conditions of stuffiness. I have never seen any one made worse by exposure to fresh air. Even during a thick Lon-don fog patients get on better lying in bed on a balcony or in rooms with win-dows wide open and a good fire burn-ing than when attempts are made to shut out the fog by keeping the win-dows shut. Dr. H. W. G. Mackenzie in London Lancet.

RELIGIOUS TATTOOING.

A Custom That Is in Vogue in One Part of Italy.

In the "vanity" section of a museum at Florence there is an interesting col-lection of blocks used for what is called "religious tattooing" among Italian peasants of the district enclosed be-tween the Abruzzi, Umbria and the Adriatic.

Peasants in these parts at work with shirt sleeves rolled up display a Chris-tian symbol of some sort or a text tat-toed in blue ink on their brown skin. This has been imprinted on the occa-sion of some special festival.

A wooden block is pressed upon the tightly drawn skin to mark the out-lines of the design. This is then punc-tured, and a blue ink is rubbed into the wounds, which usually heal in about twenty-four hours. The custom, which is essentially Christian, is in commemoration of the branding of St. Francis, who founded a monastery close to Loreto.—London Telegraph.

Etiquette.

Anxious writes, "What are the du-ties of a father at his daughter's 'com-ing out' party?" To put up and shut up.—New York Herald.

What is celebrity? The advantage of being known to people who don't know you.—Chamfort.

A Paradox.

"So you think you see an opportu-nity," said his friend.
"See an opportunity?" said the en-thusiastic person. "Yes, sir! And, I tell you, it's out of sight!"—Chicago In-ter Ocean.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

A new melodrama is called "The Lighthouse by the Sea" and is said to contain several situations warranted to thrill the most hardened and blasé melodrama patron.

Ernesta Delsarta, Von Fossart's daughter, who was a comparatively silent member of the Metropolitan Op-era House, New York, last season, has been engaged for the Dusseldorf Op-era House.

Ivan Caryll, who wrote "The Duchess of Dantzic" and "The Earl and the Girl," recently arrived in New York with Mrs. Caryll. "The Duchess of Dantzic" is now on at Daly's theater, New York.

William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer are priding themselves justly on their production of "Siberia" at the Academy, New York. The Kishineff massacre is reproduced thrillingly, and the Russian dancers add novelty.

Since the disbandment of the Boston-ians the old favorites of the company are not meeting with success. Henry Clay Barnabee has not yet found the road to prosperity, and W. H. McDon-ald encountered a fiasco in "A China Doll."

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Jet is reappearing as a trimming for net evening dresses.

Medium and brilliant tones have the preference over the dull and pastel hues that were dominant in past seasons.

A hat of one color and costume of an- other represent a new style that is in- dicative of this season's fancy for col- or.

Colored spangles on gauze in the de- sign of a butterfly with outspread wings is one of the prettiest ideas ex- emplified in the new Watteau fans.

The up to date girl wears her chatel-aine watch attached to a long black silk ribbon instead of the regulation pin. A gold safety pin a couple of inches long fastens the timepiece to the left side of the blouse.

Chemisettes designed for wear with the long basque tailor made coat are fashioned from exquisitely embroidered fine white flannel, crepe de chine or poplin and finished with a lace trim- med white linen collar and cravat. Brooklyn Eagle.

HORSES AND HORSEMEN.

Lord March, 2:11½, is on the road in Boston.

C. B. Mell of Pilot Boy (2:09½) fame is training horses at Salem, O.

There are several fast green pacers in New England by the dead Chevals, 2:04½.

A. J. D., 2:09½, will be shifted to the pace, as also will be Prince Green-lander, 2:09½.

Tom Axworthy (4), 2:08½, is still in charge of Millard Sanders, who made him, but may be transferred to Geers.

Of 1,001 mares originally entered in the 1904 Kentucky Futurity the pro- duce of 873 were paid up on last month.

The old warrior Single K. made a great showing last year. In twelve races he was seven times first, twice second and thrice third and reduced his record from 2:14½ to 2:11½.

ITEMS FROM ITALY.

Turin, one of the largest cities in Italy, has not a single building with a first class elevator.

Italy's judges have many trials. More than a hundred of them have memorialized the cabinet for an in- crease of salary, hinting darkly at the possibilities of a strike.

A Belgian manufacturer has received orders for 600 automobiles, which are to be used in central and southern Italy to replace stagecoaches. Each mo- tor wagon will have room for twelve passengers.

Several large new hotels are being built in Rome. The natives complain that the city is being modernized and Anglicized. Several bars, with bar- maid, have recently been opened, and the Cafe de Rome now has a grill room.

There are some funny stories that ought to have the union label in order to be recognized.

A VERY ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Held at Goodall Last Night.—Officers Were Nominated for the Various Offices.

At a meeting of the voters of Goodall last night there were pres- ent about fifty voters, all of whom strongly favor the incorporation of Goodall under the name of Daytona Beach, the election to decide the matter is to be held next Saturday.

The meeting last night was for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various offices which will have to be filled when the new town is incorporated.

For the office of Mayor there will be an interesting race between E. E. Johnson and C. L. Hahn, with odds in favor of the former.

The other officers nominated are as follows:

Treasurer—H. F. Stewart.
Clerk and Assessor—W. H. Craig.
Collector and Marshal—Theodore Parker.

Councilmen—Thos. H. Keating, Jno. C. Butler, Jno. M. Hires, E. L. Howard and Geo. Gardiner.

The Carnival Company.

The Riddell Carnival Company expects to remain over for three or four days next week and the tents will be open each night. Bad weath- er has made the attendance very small until last night when a large crowd was present.

Excellent order has been main- tained and the shows are free from any objectionable feature. Lunette, the flying lady, keeps every behold- er guessing. No matter what agency is employed the feat is a re- markable one and well worth see- ing. The Holy City with its many many features is the best we have ever seen and the Bold Bank Rob- bers keeps the audience in one con- tinuous uproar from start to finish. See the Bold Bank Robbers tonight. As a whole the Carnival is the best that ever came to Daytona.

Rowland Starr, M. V. Barbour, Toledo, J. L. Joyce, Baltimore, are guests of The Despland.

PALMETTO CLUB MEETING

One of the Most Interesting Held This Winter. Many Prominent Visitors Present.

The Palmetto Club met yesterday in the Opera House. There was a full attendance and a large number of guests, making about 125 in all. The program for the afternoon was an Irish one to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. The hall was very tastefully and artistically decorated all in green and in a most conspicuous place sat the figure of the Patron Saint.

The program opened with Irish melodies on the piano by Mrs. Day- idson, followed by a reading of the pathetic story of Ommen, by Mrs. Shaffner, which was read in such touching manner as to bring tears to the eyes of many. Prof. Blount then sang two selections, (a) "The Harp that once through Tara's Halls;" (b) "Wearing the Green," and for an encore, "The Girl I Left Behind Me." Mrs. Conrad's recita- tion, Shamus O'Brien, with piano accompaniment, deserves more than the few words that can be said here, for she recited in a most affecting manner, holding the undivided at- tention of her audience and received a hearty applause at the close. The next number was two songs by Mrs. Moore, (a) "Kathleen Mayoureen;" (b) "The Last Rose of Summer," which was listened to with the rap- id attention Mrs. Moore's songs always claim. That closed the program for the afternoon.

The president then arose and said: "We were honored by having with us today two of the most illustrious women of America. Miss Susan B. Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw." She then took Miss Anthony by the hand and introduced her to the ladies, when she gave them a short "talk" and mentioned the fact that Florida was the only State in the Union that she had never spoken in public until then. Rev. Anna Shaw was then introduced to the ladies and made a most interesting address, interspersed with witty remarks and clos- (Continued on Second Page.)

ing with a most amusing Irish story.
At the close of her remarks, the president presented Mme. Geneva Johnstone-Bishop, the great singer, who sang "Ah! Might I Gaze Once again in Thine Eyes," and all who have ever heard her can well know that she received a hearty and continued applause, and she responded most graciously with another, which was applauded as loudly.

Afterwards punch and wafers were served and a very pleasant social time was enjoyed by all. The day will be one long to be remembered in the annals of the club.

Musical and Dance at The Clarendon.

Last evening was the scene of a very pretty testimonial concert to the ladies' orchestra playing at The Clarendon.

The casino was charmingly decorated with palm leaves and Spanish moss, the effect of the green and the moss hanging from the rafters, with the electric light shining through,
being almost grotto like.

The piano, placed under an arch
of magnolia branches, had the Stars and Stripes tastefully arranged for a background.

Soon after eight o'clock the casino was rapidly filled with guests of the hotel and outside friends of the orchestra, and the following program was given, in which Mrs. Peter Reiss, of Sheboygan, Wisconsin, soprano, and Mrs. Fred Haines, of Chicago, contralto, generously assisted the young ladies.

Mrs. Haines' sympathetic contralto was heard to good advantage in the selection which she chose and she received hearty applause.

Mrs. Reiss, who has delighted the guests of the Clarendon on several previous occasions gave additional pleasure. In response to an encore
she sang "I doubt it," Mansfield.

The work of the young ladies continued to be what it has been throughout the season, a credit to themselves and to the house. Miss Hardy's cornet solo showed skill and careful study of her instrument.
For an encore she played a polka:
"Roses and Lilies,"—Rollinson.

Dancing followed until a late hour, and the party broke up with many congratulations on the musical and financial success of the young ladies benefit.

State Fair.

At an enthusiastic meeting of representatives of South Florida counties assembled at the city hall
in Tampa Wednesday, it was unanimously voted to organize a Florida State Midwinter Fair Association for the purpose of holding annual fairs in Tampa. Delegates were in attendance from several Florida counties and one from Leon county in response to invitations from the Tampa Board of Trade.

President Fuller, in calling the meeting to order, stated that he now represented the Board of Trade, delivered the meeting into the hands of the assembled delegates, and he awaited their pleasure, promising that the organization he represented would give a willing and hearty acquiescence in whatever was done by the meeting and as hearty co-operation in such action as the meeting might determine upon.

The capital stock of the company was placed at $50,000 in shares of $10 each.

An inquirer wants to know why silver dollars bearing the date of 1905 are so late in making their appearance in the circulation. He recalls that in former years he saw new silver dollars as early as the middle of February. The reason is simple: There will not be any 1905 silver dollars. The coinage of silver dollars was suspended with the beginning of this year. But there will be no dearth of the coins. Millions and millions of them are stacked away in the treasury vaults, and a truck load of them may be had at any time upon the surrender of their equivalent in paper bills.

THE TWINS.

We're twins, an' my name's Lucy Brown,
An' her name's Lulu. I'm called Lou,
An' ever body in 'is town
'Ey call my sister 'at name too.
An' folks 'ey come to see us here,
An' we let have the moster' fun,
'Cause ever body say: 'Oh, dear!
'Wy, 'is one 'is the nuther one?'

My papa sometimes look at me
An' say: 'Well, Lulu, how you grow!'
An' nen I laugh, an' nen 'wy, he Say goodness sakes, he'll never know
Which one 'is which. An' nen I say
'No one can tell us twins apart
'Cause we're together anyway.
An' nen he holler, 'Bless you heart!'

My mamma never gets us mixed;
She always knows my twin from me.
An' papa say she's got us fixed—
Our clo'es or hair so she can see.
But mamma hugs us bofe up tight
An' kisses us an' pats our curls
An' says a mudder's always wite
An' always knows her prebush girls.

But nuther folks 'ey let can't tell,
An' onest when Lulu climb a tree
An' couldn't hold, 'wy, when she fell
The doctor thought 'at she was me.
Nen we all laugh, an' he let say
'It's all in how the notions strike.
'At bofe of us looks 'st one way,
But 'at I look the most alike!'
—Wilbur D. Nesbit in Harper's Magazine.

A St. Patrick's Party.

The card party given at The Ridgewood last night was not only a novel one, but one of the most enjoyable of the many social events
given there this season.

In commemoration of St. Patrick's day, much green was in evidence.
The ladies wore wide belts of green crepe paper tied in large bows at the back. The gentlemen all appeared wearing green ties, and one gentleman was resplendent in a light green shirt.

A costly prize, the only one offered,
was awarded Mr. L. O. Smith,
the prize being a cabbage rose. This was an immense cabbage, the heart of which had been removed and in the vacant space a bunch of violets inserted. Streamers of white ribbon depended, on the ends of which were fastened shells and an onion.
A handsome collation was served at the completion of the game.

During the progress of the game
Mrs. Spangler's orchestra rendered
"St. Patrick's Day in the Morning,"
"Wearing of the Green," "Peggy O'Neil" and "Killarney."

Those present were Mr. and Mrs.
Macomber, Mr. and Mrs. Millard,
Miss Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Foster,
Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Dr. and Mrs.
Weiting, Mrs. Overton, Mrs. Plummer, Miss Plummer, Mrs. B. L.
Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Juhling, Mrs. Gimble, Mrs. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild.

United States Senator John W.
Daniel, famous Virginia orator, speaking of Gilbert Wadden, who will be at the Opera House next Tuesday, says: "The Virginian and Cowboy is an eloquentist of wonderful power and remarkable versatility.
His beautiful dialect scenes and thrilling war stories of Dixie should commend him to every Southern patriot."

Andrew Albright Dead.

Andrew Albright, ex-Governor of New Jersey and a prominent manufacturer of rubber goods of Newark,
N. J., died at The Clarendon yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Albright had been in failing health for some time and was stricken with apoplexy on Wednesday last, at the age of 74 years. He did not regain consciousness again.
Mr. Albright's son and daughter arrived yesterday after their father's demise.

The family left with the body
this afternoon for their New Jersey home.

Chas. L. Fildes will lecture at the Opera House next Thursday.

Green Silk Dress Stolen.

After an earnest search for several days to secure an owner for the handsome green silk dress secured by the detectives from the home of Fred Jenkins in Jacksonville, one of the alleged burglars now in the county jail, the owner came to light
Wednesday in the person of Warren
L. Brandt.

Mr. Brandt, accompanied by his wife, came South a few weeks ago
from Albany, N. Y. They stopped awhile on Cedar street, in this city,
and when they examined Mrs.
Brandt's trunk it was found to be broken open. This robbery occurred between Savannah, Ga., and this city. Jenkins has already admitted robbing express packages on the East Coast, and this robbery is also laid to him, as the dress was found at a house where he was rooming.

Mr. Brandt, who is now in St.
Augustine, saw the description of the stolen articles in the Times-Union, and his wife was positive that the green silk dress was hers. Following this up, Mr. Brandt wrote to the police, and found the dress really belonged to his wife. The dress is valued at $27. There were also several other articles missed from the trunk.

Misses Florence and Gail Moore
have returned from Deland.

There was an informal inspection of the Halifax Rifles last night.

The Uncle Sam will make a trip
up the Tomoka tomorrow.

T. Edw. Fitzgerald is over from Deland for a few days visit with friends at this place.

Maj. John B. Parkinson is confined to his room, suffering from an attack of la grippe.

The inspection of the Halifax
Rifles will be made Monday night,
after which there will be a military ball.

At a special meeting of the city council today, the mayor was instructed to refuse the Carnival Company a permit to continue the shows
next week.

Miss Mabel Bingham has returned to St. Augustine after a few days visit with her father, Col. C. M.
Bingham. Her sister, Miss Floss, accompanied her to The Ancient City.

One of Daytona's popular and obliging boat owners took an involuntary bath Thursday. He was running on the dock, made slippery by the rain, when he slipped and fell overboard in the channel. The Uncle Sam's crew refused to give the reporter the facts about the accident.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its widest expanse and midway between the source at Bayview Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29° 54' north and one mile from the Atlantic ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high land, a tract that was crowned in 1764 with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-kept walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the amorphous climber cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all too feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breeze from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, macadam and shell roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivaled course for long distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages
that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply
which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach
lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebb tide, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the gray-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula
lying between river and ocean is one-half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature
at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying. Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon. Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
